Intervener.

CORAM : D. G. DESHPANDE
S. A. BOBDE, JJ.
DATED : 08TH JUNE, 2006.

P.C.:

. Heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and learned Advocate for the I.C.I.C.I. Bank-Intervener in all these petitions. Both of them state that two applications are pending before the lower court, one is for return of property and the other filed by the petitioner is for keeping that application in abeyance. The main application is for return of the property. We, therefore, by consent of both the learned Advocates, direct the lower court to decide the application in regard to the return of property as expeditiously as possible. Both the learned Advocates gave an undertaking that they will not seek unnecessary adjournment in the matter. If the court decides the matter and that the order for return of the property goes against the petitioner then the said order will not be given effect for two weeks. In the meantime, the aggrieved party may move this court.

. All the petitions are disposed of.

. This order is passed by consent of both the parties.
